The 8-Step Blue Print for a Successful Business Makeover 8.Secrets from a National Champion to Accelerate Your Business

Delfgauw, The Netherlands, July 4, 2018: The book Maximum Business Growth for Women written by international bestselling author Tineke Rensen is set to be released on July 6, 2018. Tineke has been a businesswoman in a male-dominated industry for the past 28 years. She has experienced firsthand the difficulties and lack of support women encounter in their business endeavors.

Written from the perspective of a successful business woman, Maximum Business Growth for Women, aims to help other women rethink the current business and service models mostly suited for men and instead work on their unique emotions and values as women with regards to financial planning and other business matters. In each of the 8-Step Blue Print contained in the book, Tineke shares insights, tips and her own experiences to identify what needs to be changed and how this change can be achieved.

Award winning author and International Speaker Vishal Morjaria says of Tineke's book: "Tineke has made it very easy for you. She has created a system called "The Blueprint for a Successful Business Makeover," and implementing this system into your business is exactly what you need. Why waste time in finding it all on your own if there is a faster way?" Indeed.

The book will be available online on Amazon and at <https://maximumbusinessgrowthforwomen.com>
